

The Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street, SW
Washington, DC 20554

Dear The Federal Communications Commission,

As a single female consumer, I feel that any program that taxes individuals at a higher rate than corporate entities penalizes consumers unfairly. I also realize that big business is the backbone of this nation, but I personally cannot afford more taxes!!!

Sincerely,

Joy Scheetz
161 Windrow Lane
Bremen, Alabama 35055-5435